

LAKE FOREST GRADUATE SCHOOL

Employer Partnership

Lake Forest Graduate School of Management works with organizations to help educate, upskill, and retain their employees.

We offer flexible programs designed for working professionals, all of which are taught by Business Leader Faculty and focus on practical learning for immediate impact.

At Lake Forest, our passion lies in helping others achieve their professional goals to maximize leadership impact. Our students gain real-world, relevant business expertise to move their careers--and their organizations--forward.

LFGSM offers a variety of academic programs and ways to work together.

We offer Employer Partners the following benefits:

- Exclusive scholarships
- Cohort learning options
- Special group tuition rates
- Complimentary learning sessions
- Flexible financing options
- Customized landing page
- Credit for professional development

Organizations support their partnership in a variety of ways:

- List LFGSM programs alongside internal academic options
- Host informational events
- Newsletter/email communication
- Introduction to Employee Resource Groups
